Plaintiff also has serious limitations in his arms and shoulders as a result of a shoulder replacement and other surgeries.
6. That, Defendant SOVEREIGN APARTMENTS, INC., is a New York corporation authorized to conduct and conducting business within the State of New York, and is the owner of the real property which is subject to this action located at 405 E. 58th St., in New York City (the "Subject Property").
7. The Subject Property is a place of public accommodation as that term is defined by the ADA; specifically, the Subject Property is operated by Defendant's tenant as a restaurant known as "Bistro Vendome."
8. Prior to the commencement of this action, Plaintiff visited the Subject Property; however, Plaintiff was denied full and equal access to, and full enjoyment of the facilities at the Subject Property and/or of the accommodations offered to the public therein, in that Plaintiff was restricted and limited in his ability to access the Subject Property by virtue of his disabilities, as set forth more fully below.

COUNT I
VIOLATIONS OF THE AMERICANS WITH DISABILITIES ACT

9. Plaintiff re-avers the allegations set forth above, as though fully set forth herein.
10. On July 26, 1990, Congress enacted the Americans with Disabilities Act, 42 U.S.C. § 12101, et seq.
11. Congress specifically found, inter alia, that:¹
 - a. Some 43,000,000 Americans have one or more physical or mental disabilities, and this number is increasing as the population as a whole is growing older;
 - b. Historically, society has tended to isolate and segregate individuals with disabilities, and, despite some improvements, such forms of discrimination against individuals with disabilities continue to be a serious and pervasive social problem;
 - c. Discrimination against individuals with disabilities persists in such critical areas of employment, housing, public accommodations, education, transportation, communication, recreation, institutionalization, health services, voting, and access to public services;
 - d. Individuals with disabilities continually encounter various forms of discrimination, including outright intentional exclusion, the discriminatory effects of architectural, transportation, and communication barriers, overprotective rules and policies, failure to make modifications to existing facilities and practices, exclusionary qualification standards and criteria, segregation, and relegation to lesser service, programs, activities, benefits, jobs, or other opportunities; and,

- e. The continuing existence of unfair and unnecessary discrimination and prejudice denies people with disabilities the opportunity to compete on an equal basis and to pursue those opportunities for which our free society is justifiably famous, and costs the United States billions of dollars in unnecessary expenses resulting from dependency and non-productivity.

12. Congress explicitly set forth the purpose of the ADA; to wit:²

- (i) Provide a clear and comprehensive national mandate for the elimination of discrimination against individuals with disabilities;
- (ii) Provide a clear, strong, consistent, enforceable standards addressing discrimination against individuals with disabilities; and,
- (iii) Invoke the sweep of congressional authority, including the power to enforce the fourteenth amendment and to regulate commerce, in order to address the major areas of discrimination faced day-to-day by people with disabilities.

13. The congressional legislation gave places of public accommodation a time period of up to one and a half years from the enactment of the ADA to implement the requirements imposed by the ADA. The effective date of Title III of the ADA was January 26, 1992 (or January 26, 1993, if Defendant has 10 or fewer employees and gross receipts of $500,000.00 or less).³

² 42 U.S.C. § 12101(b) (1) (2) and (4).

³ 42 U.S.C. § 12181; 28 C.F.R. § 36.508(a).

14. Pursuant to the mandates of 42 U.S.C. § 12134(a), on July 26, 1991, the Department of Justice, Office of Attorney General, promulgated federal regulations to implement the requirements of the ADA (the “ADAAG”).⁴
15. Public accommodations were required to conform to these regulations by January 26, 1992 (or January 26, 1993, if Defendant has 10 or fewer employees and gross receipts of $500,000.00 or less).⁵
16. The Subject Premises is legally required to be, but is not, in compliance with the ADA and ADAAG.
17. Such non-compliance includes but is not limited to the following:
 - a. Exterior ground floor outside the front door is comprised of an uneven surface in violation of ADAAG §403 and 302.
 - b. Path leading to the entrance is inaccessible as a result of steps having no ramp or other ADA compliant means of ingress or egress in violation of ADAAG §206, 207 and 303.⁶
 - c. Required minimum maneuvering clearance not provided at front doorway in violation of ADAAG §404.
 - d. Required minimum maneuvering clearance not provided at entry to vestibule (wind breaker) doorway in violation of ADAAG §404.

⁴ 29 C.F.R. Part 36.

⁵ 42 U.S.C. § 12181; 28 C.F.R. § 36.508(a).

- e. Completely inaccessible lower dining area (having unique characteristics and more than 25% of total restaurant seating) in violation of ADAAG §206.
 - f. Stairway to lower level does not provide handrails for full length of path of travel down the stairs, and required handrail extension are missing at bottom of handrails at bottom of stairs in violation of ADAAG §505.
 - g. Completely inaccessible upper dining area (having unique characteristics and more than 25% of total restaurant seating) in violation of ADAAG §206.
 - h. Non-compliant handrails leading to the second level dining area in violation of ADAAG §505.
 - i. Minimum required maneuvering clearance not provided at restroom door in violation of ADAAG §404.
 - j. Minimum required clearances not provided at water closet in violation of ADAAG §604.
 - k. Compliant water closet grab-bars not provided in violation of ADAAG §604.
 - l. Inaccessible lavatory in restroom is missing required knee and toe clearance in violation of ADAAG §606 and 306.
 - m. Inaccessible lavatory in restroom exceeding maximum allowable height in violation of ADAAG §606.
 - n. Inaccessible coat hook affixed to restroom door exceeding maximum height allowance in violation of ADAAG §604 and 308.
18. This is not intended as a complete list of ADA and ADAAG violations at the Subject Property. Additional violations will be set forth within Plaintiff's expert disclosures and report, following inspection made pursuant to Fed. R. Civ. P. 34.

19. Plaintiff was and is blocked by physical barriers to access at the Subject Property, dangerous conditions, and ADA violations, existing upon the Subject Property, including those specified above. These violations, which include but are not limited to those enumerated herein, prohibit Plaintiff from fully accessing the Subject Property, and/or the goods, services, facilities, privileges, advantages and/or accommodations offered therein.
20. Remediating the ADA and ADAAG violations set forth herein is both technically feasible and readily achievable.
21. Plaintiff intends to visit the Subject Property again in the future (immediately upon Defendants' compliance with an Order of this Court requiring that Defendants remedy the subject ADA violations) in order to utilize all of the goods, services, facilities, privileges, advantages and/or accommodations offered at the Subject Property; however, in light of his disabilities, unless and until the Subject Property is brought into full compliance with the ADA and its implementing regulations, Plaintiff will remain unable to fully, properly, and safely access the Subject Property and/or the goods, services, facilities, privileges, advantages and/or accommodations offered therein.
22. As a result of the foregoing, Defendants have discriminated against Plaintiff and others with disabilities, by denying access to, and full and equal enjoyment of, the goods, services, facilities, privileges, advantages and/or accommodations of the Defendants' Property and Subject Premises. Defendant's discrimination is specifically prohibited by 42 U.S.C. § 12182, et seq.
23. Moreover, Defendants will continue to discriminate against Plaintiff and others with disabilities unless and until it is compelled by this Court to remove all physical barriers upon the Subject Property, which violate the ADA and ADAAG, including but not limited to those specifically set forth herein, and to make the Defendants' Property and Subject Premises, accessible to and usable by persons with disabilities, including Plaintiff.

24. Plaintiff is without adequate remedy at law, and is suffering irreparable harm, and reasonably anticipates that he will continue to suffer irreparable harm unless and until Defendants are required to remove the physical barriers, dangerous conditions, and ADA violations that exist upon the Subject Property, including but not limited to those set forth herein.
25. This Court is vested with authority to grant injunctive relief sought by Plaintiff, including entry of an order requiring alteration and modification of the Subject Property so as to make readily accessible to and useable by individuals with disabilities to the extent required by law.
